NORTH

World Narrative Feature Competition
Feature Narrative | 2008 | 78 min | English subtitles

Director: Rune Denstad Langlo
Producers: Sigve Endresen and Brede Hovland for Motlys AS Cast: Anders Baasmo Christiansen

A road movie without a road, North is a wry comedy about a former ski champion recovering from a mental breakdown and on a journey to start anew. Having just learned he has a five-year-old son, he hops on his snowmobile with a batch of moonshine, bound for ex-girlfriend's home in Norway's Far North. His oddball encounters along the way make this fresh and original debut both tender and amusing.

YODOK STORIES

World Documentary Feature Competition
Feature Documentary | 2008 | 82 min | English narration and subtitles

Director: Andrzej Fidyk
Producers: Torstein Grude and Bjarte Mørner Tveit for Piraya Film AS

Exposing subject matter notoriously shrouded in secrecy, this uplifting and sobering doc chronicles a group of North Korean concentration camp escapees and their contributions to a powerful musical based on their experiences. Blending interviews and scenes from the controversial stage show, director Andrzej Fidyk explores the atrocities they faced as prisoners—and the challenges they face while trying to express them through art.
